

THE TRUTH OF HISTORY
DEATH OF A CENTENARY

Gen. Davis, Gen. Sherman.

From the St. Louis Times.
We are permitted to make public the very interesting letter from Gen. Sherman, in answer to a charge made by Gen. Davis, in his late published work of memoirs—Editorial.

Memphis, Tenn., May 27, 1875.
Gen. W. F. Miller.
My dear Sir: Please do not think that I am writing you this letter in a spirit of anger or of ill-will. I am writing it in a spirit of friendship and of a desire to clear up a misunderstanding.

The matter that is at issue is a matter of fact, and not of opinion. It is a matter of fact that I was not present at the battle of Gettysburg. I was in the city of Philadelphia at the time.

Gen. Sherman never was personally acquainted with me, and from those who know me, either in the U. S. Army or in civil life, surely learned nothing to justify such a charge.

It is a fact that I was not present at the battle of Gettysburg. I was in the city of Philadelphia at the time. I was not present at the battle of Gettysburg.

It is a fact that I was not present at the battle of Gettysburg. I was in the city of Philadelphia at the time. I was not present at the battle of Gettysburg.

It is a fact that I was not present at the battle of Gettysburg. I was in the city of Philadelphia at the time. I was not present at the battle of Gettysburg.

It is a fact that I was not present at the battle of Gettysburg. I was in the city of Philadelphia at the time. I was not present at the battle of Gettysburg.
